

CMRS EDINBURGH SEMINAR IN MEDIEVAL AND RENAISSANCE
STUDIES / DENYS HAY
2011/2012

Tuesdays 5.15pm, Room G2, 19 George Square (Islamic & Middle Eastern Studies; Northwest corner of the square, across from the Chrystal Macmillan Building).

Apart from 17 April, Denys Hay Lecture, location to be advised.

Semester 2 2011-12

17 January	Dr Isabella Lazzarini University of Durham / University of Molise	'The Words of Emotion: Political Language and Discursive Resources in Lorenzo de Medici's Lettere (1468-1492).'
24 January	Dr Scott Ashley Newcastle University	'What did Louis the Pious See in the Night Sky? The Carolingians and Halley's Comet, 837.'
31 January	Dr Stephen Penn University of Stirling	"'Matrimonium quid proprie sit": John Wyclif on the Sacrament of Marriage.'
7 February	Prof. Judith Green University of Edinburgh	'The 'Normans, Northern England, and Scotland'.'
14 February	Prof. Michael Angold University of Edinburgh	'Historical Turning Points: 1204 and 1453 compared.'
21 February	Dr Jane Gilbert University College, London	'Outside France? Hainault Connections.'
28 February	Dr Anna Groundwater and Dr James Loxley University of Edinburgh	'Parvenus, patrons, and inebriated parsons: on the road with Ben Jonson, 1618.'
6 March	Prof. Richard Gameson Durham University	'The Earliest English Royal Books.'
13 March	Dr Deborah Strickland University of Glasgow	"'Ethiopians" and the Problem of "Race" in Late Medieval Art and Thought.'
20 March	Prof. Stefan Brink University of Aberdeen	'Viking Slavery.'
27 March	Prof. Peter Coss Cardiff University	'Entertainment in the Medieval Gentry Household.'
3 April	Prof. Alison Findlay Lancaster University	"'Youth's a stuff will not endure": Boy actors and women's parts'
17 April	Prof. Judith Bennett University of Southern California	Denys Hay Lecture 'Death and the Maiden'
24 April		Postgraduate Presentations / CMRS Round Table